SOME GUN PLAY AT TYRONE, OKLA.

Tuesday afternoon Elmer Huber came to town loaded with an oversupply of hooch and started a gun play. His first adventure was in the telephone office where he scared the operator with the display of his gun. It is reported he drew his gun on several citizens and the town marshal.

His gun was finally taken away from him and he was lodged in the town jail. He was taken before Justice Mathes Wednesday, where he pleaded guilty to two charges, one for carrying a deadly weapon, and the other for being drunk and disorderly. His fine amounted to $50.00, together with the costs, which made a total of $57.10.

After he was released by the city Deputy Sheriff Locke took charge of him and took him to Guymon where he was lodged in the county jail, pending developments of more serious charges.—Tyrone Observer.

SCHOOL CHILDREN GOT SCARED UP

The school wagon belonging to J. Q. Ferguson and carrying the children from southwest of town into Guymon, where they attend school, was badly wrecked last Friday morning, and two of the occupants, grandchildren of Mr. Ferguson, were considerably scared up, but not seriously injured. The team being driven by the young lady, got beyond her control, running quite a distance and overturning the wagon in a ditch at one of the railroad crossings near town. The children were brought in and given care by Dr. Davidson, and were back in school the next morning.—Guymon Herald.

SEEMS TO CAUSE TROUBLE THERE

The following notice across the bottom of the front page of a recent issue of the Hooker Advance is self explanatory:

Notice: Believing that the present controversy between the Ku Klux Klan and the anti-Ku Klux Klan is a detriment to the town, and if continued will endanger the peace and welfare of our citizens, as well as the commercial life of the community, the Advance has resolved not to accept for publication any matter pertaining to either organization.—Hooker Advance.

RAISED A CHECK FROM $5.00 to $45.00

John Weathers, who left this part of the country two months ago, came back the first of the week and Deputy Sheriff Dallas Lewter picked him up Monday morning and he was lodged in jail. Before leaving here Mr. Weathers was given a check for $5, it seems, and when it appeared at the bank on which it was written, it had been raised to $45, and bore his endorsement. Then he went away, and either he must have forgotten or thought the other fellow would.—Guymon Herald.
